I am deeply concerned that one of the ^{proposed} routes for the RR is through Willow & would have a HORRIBLE impact on Wildlife, Fishing, Tourism, Hunting, etc. & on the people that live in this peaceful & beautiful community. I moved to Alaska 6 years ago from Florida where I had lived most of my life (almost 40 years) & witnessed the destruction of a very beautiful State all for the monetary gain of mankind. Wildlife was destroyed as were beaches & small peaceful communities. What a sin it would be to disregard our God given resources here in Alaska for the almighty dollar. In looking at proposed routes, it appears the Hamilton South route would have the least amount of impact on wildlife & humans, also the town of Homer sits right on the RR line, so why not let them have it?
